

“The Wiz”
Grambling State University
Department of Visual and Performing Arts

The Jonesboro-Hodge High School Theatre students were given the opportunity to attend a performance of “The Wiz” presented by the Grambling State University Department of Visual and Performing Arts. The musical is an adaptation of the classic "The Wizard of Oz" and was directed by Dr. King D. Godwin, Head of the Department of Theatre, Dance, and Visual Art at the university.

The students attending included Jordan B., Ashley-Kate M., Janie D., Alycea H., Alexis H., John T., K'Trionna H., LaChantra R., Dameshia J., Jhazzman M., Fredrekia W., Amanda H., and Brea H. They are shown with cast members from the production.

The J-H students were accompanied by Mrs. Holly Hampton and Ms. Vickie Joe.

